

BRASS CAP DEVELOPMENT PARTNER TIM CASTELLO APPOINTED AS CLARK COUNTY PLANNING COMMISSIONER

Tim Castello, CCIM, will Serve Four Years as Planning Commissioner for Clark County, Nevada

LAS VEGAS (Feb. 02, 2021) – Brass Cap Development, a local premiere industrial development firm, proudly announced its partner, Tim Castello, CCIM, has been appointed as a planning commissioner for Clark County, Nevada – the country’s thirteenth largest county. Castello was selected to join the planning commission by Clark County Commissioner Ross Miller.

As a Las Vegas native, Castello has vast and diverse experience in land acquisition, entitlement, construction, project development, government affairs, leasing and sales.

“I genuinely enjoy watching my hometown continue to develop and grow into a more economically diverse city,” said Castello. “I am honored and humbled to have the opportunity to give back to the community I grew up in.”

As a Clark County Planning Commissioner, Castello will contribute recommendations to the board on comprehensive master plans, various land use plans, non-conforming zone changes and other land use applications throughout the county.

Brass Cap Development has more than one million square feet of industrial projects under construction and in its pipeline throughout Las Vegas’ most in-demand Submarkets including West Henderson and Southwest Las Vegas.
